

SAFETY, HEALTH & ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

It is the policy of the Denel Aeronautics to provide its customers with world-class solutions from design and development, with manufacturing and assembly including through life support of aircraft and related systems. The company strives for on-time delivery, and ever-improving levels of excellence and customer satisfaction. The company is also a provider for integrated training.

Management and all personnel of this organization are committed to:

- Identifying safety and health hazards and environmental aspects and associated risks/opportunities
- Comply with all applicable legal and other requirements
- Provide a safe working environment, prevent injury and ill health to all persons by our activities
- Minimize our impact on the environment through pollution prevention which is
 - Reduction of emissions to the environment
 - Reduce depletion of natural resources
 - Re-using, reducing and recycling of waste
- Appropriately training and/ or informing our employees on SHE activities
- Inducting contractors and visitors
- Responding effectively to SHE emergencies
- Demonstrating ownership and support to SHE management system
- Setting SHE objectives and targets
- Providing appropriate resources required
- Communicating with our employees through established forums within the organization and affected parties upon request
- Evaluating performance and continually improving the SHE management system

This policy shall be reviewed to ensure ongoing suitability, particularly if there are changes in our operations.

Christopher A. Hughes
Executive Manager QSHE

Michael L. Kgobe
Chief Executive Officer

DENEL AERONAUTICS